

Things to see & do:

Guesthouse Introductory Village Tour

Please ask to be taken on a tour of the village (complementary) so that you know your way around. Remember to dress appropriately in respect of local custom. If you're not sure what to wear, check with me.

Swimming & snorkeling

It's safe to swim & snorkel from the beach. Reef shoes are a good idea, but not essential. There are 2 sets of masks & snorkels (provided free of charge). Ask me if you want to borrow them.

If you wish to swim and snorkel further out, or try your hand at fishing, you will need a guide.

Fee: 1,000 vatu per person

Kayaking

2 kayaks are available for use by guests. There is no charge.

Village Food Garden Tour

Guided visits to the village food gardens/plantations are available.

Fee: 1,000 vatu per person

Guided Bushwalk

A guided hike into the hills to the village water source can be arranged. It takes 4 or 5 hours return, depending on walking speed & stops. A picnic lunch will be provided. You will need good walking or hiking shoes.

Fee: 2,000 vatu per person

Local Cooking Demonstration

Watch & participate in the making of local food, traditionally prepared and cooked in hot stones. You get to eat it too!

Fee: 1,000 vatu per person

Weaving Demonstration

Try your hand at weaving the traditional way with pandanus & coconut leaves.

Fee: 1,000 vatu per person

NOTE:

One day's notice is needed to arrange any of the activities/demonstrations.

Activities on Sundays

Free activities such as swimming & snorkeling are acceptable on Sundays, but out of respect for tradition, the other activities are not. You'll be most welcome to attend a church service. If you wish to do so, please ask me.

Adventuring further afield

Day Trips to Pele Island & Nguna Island

I can arrange day trips to Pele and Nguna.

The total cost of the return boat trip is approximately 6,000vt.

Lunch & use of the beach is approximately 1,500vt per head.

Mt. Maron extinct volcano

A hike to the extinct volcano on Nguna can be arranged. Ask me for details.

(Post-COVID not all previously available day trips have recommenced)

DISCLAIMER:

I do not expect you to be in any danger or difficulty when you take part in any of the activities listed above. However, you partake in all activities at your own risk.
